CAN'T REBUILD.

G. Newland Served with a Notice This Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon N. G. Newland began repairing the frame structure recently damaged by fire on Pipestone street.

The fire ordinance of the city forbids a repairing of such a building. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Newland set men at work repairing the building. The matter came to the attention of the city authorities and this afternoon a notice was served on Mr. Newland to stop the repairs and at once order the penalty provided in the fire ordinance.

While everyone feels sorry for the financial loss that Mr. Newland may sustain in living up to the ordinance a protection of the city requires that there be a fire ordinance and that it be enforced. Mr. Newland will probably build in a nice brick block.

Alumni Meeting.

The High school alumni will hold its next meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30, the Broadway building. A full attendance is desired.

A SPOILED PACKAGE.

Used Trouble in a Man's Household.

Those were happy days when I was a valet and could feel the content returning strength and life. None know the feeling except those who have been very ill and recovered. I began again, months after complete recovery, to use coffee for breakfast and it seemed to agree with me. While until I gradually became conscious that the old stomach and troubles were coming on again. I had been cured first by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. I would have always used Postum for the fact that I got a spoiled package one day and turned against it. I didn't then know that the grocer had given me a good one in its place without charge. When I found Coffee was "doing me" I went back to Postum and found it better made than ever and a charming, delicious beverage. I have never since then been well and happy.

SHOOTING A TRAITOR...

Saddest Sight Ever Witnessed by Ex-Mayor Plummer..

The sentence of the Spanish spy on the monitor Puritan to be shot recalls to the mind of Ex-Mayor Plummer the saddest sight he saw during the civil war.

A soldier in the Union army had been convicted of turning traitor to the flag by court martial and was ordered shot. His grave was dug, and near it was the coffin for the traitor's body. The band played a wailing dirge and the culprit was seated blindfolded on the coffin.

Twelve soldiers were detailed to do the shooting. One of the twelve guns contained a blank cartridge and not one of the marksmen knew whether his gun contained a bullet or not and consequently each one thought that he had not shot the traitor. At a given signal the twelve guns boomed and the condemned man fell back, without a struggle, dead.

JUST A GUESS.

Few Officers Whom Mayor Brant Will Appoint.

At the meeting of the common council Monday evening Mayor Brant will appoint a city marshal, two policemen, city attorney, health officer, street commissioner, poor master, city teamster and several other officers.

The mayor has not taken any of his friends into his confidence and has not told anyone who he will appoint. All he says is that he will appoint first-class men.

As a guess THE NEWS predicts the appointment of the following: Marshall—Robert O. Neely. Street commissioner—George F. Cunningham.

Poormaster—T. J. Crandall. The other appointments will be a surprise to the mayor's closest friends. It is asserted that Samuel Calderwood will be given a place on the police force, and if the democrats have their way Attorney Hicks will be made city attorney.

Mr. Neely, the man supposed to be the next chief of police, resides on Britain avenue. He is a carpenter by trade and before coming here had experience on the police force at St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. Cunningham, whose chances are good for street commissioner, moved to the city from Pearl Grange about a year ago. He has been a farmer and a prominent member of the state grange. He does not claim to be a democrat, but holds allegiance to the populist party. Last year Mr. Cunningham worked on the Fayette dock.

ST. JOSEPH.

Willis Stevens is now assisting in the store of Burkhard Brothers.

An expert track builder from Battle Creek is in the city and has gone over the proposed route of the St. Joseph-Stevensville bicycle track. He will make his report at the public meeting to be held at the city hall this evening.

One hundred girls from 5 to 14 years of age, dressed in white will take part in the exercises. The children will march from the Sacred Heart to St. Joseph's church and occupy seats in the sanctuary. After the usual May hymns, May crowning and recitations by the children, will follow benediction. The exercises will close with the song, "My Country," by the congregation. The children will carry bouquets and wear white caps. The various altar flowers will be elaborately decorated.

"I left my pocketbook containing $94 under the pillow of my bunk and proceeded up town, in Chicago, before I discovered my loss. BOUND FOR CANARIES

Three Spanish Boats Leave Cape Verde for Canaries.

Madrid Government Reports Another Victory.

Atlanta, Ga., April 30.—The Journal's correspondent with Captain Sampson's war fleet cables that Fort Cabanas, a suburb of Havana, was bombarded last night by the flagship New York and that the Spanish guns were completely silenced.

London, April 30.—The British consul at Santiago has cabled the authorities asking for a British warship to protect British interests.

It is officially announced from Madrid that a Spanish gunboat engaged in a successful battle with an American torpedo boat off Cardenas.

Washington, April 30.—Information has reached the navy department that three Spanish torpedo boats, two towed by transports, left St. Vincent, Cape Verde islands, this morning for the Canaries.

The cruiser Minneapolis is anchored at Rockland, Me.

Key West, April 30.—Incoming boats say that the firing by the flagship New York last night was in Cabanas, a small fort ten miles west of Mariel.

The torpedo boats Porter and Erickson were scouting close to the coast when the small battery opened fire.

The torpedo boats notified the New York, which was cruising slowly in a westerly direction.

The New York returned the fire of the small fort by sending twelve shots from six and eight inch guns. The batteries on shore made no response.

SOCIETY SCANDAL!!

Many of our society people have been quietly talking about certain suspicious circumstances during the past winter and today the climax has been reached.

The lady in question has been one of our foremost social leaders and has been particularly noticeable on all occasions for her dress and form.

When one of our intimate friends take an unexpected step we are surprised but events have prepared us for startling developments in this case.

We are not in possession of all the facts but suffice it to say that she has gone and left home and family.

Everybody has looked upon her as a fashion plate almost and for her own protection she has always kept secret her purchases, etc.

The deserted home was visited this morning and searched for some evidence or clue and the searching party were rewarded by finding the following note and accompanying photo upon her dressing table:

To my many admiring friends: For some time I have been tempted to impart to you the secret of my personal beauty and now on the eve of my hasty departure I will leave to you my latest photo. In it you see me in the fundamental secret of my beauty, the corset.

To it is due the superb form you have all so much admired. You have all no doubt imagined that my skirts were lined with silk but they were not. "Near silk" is just as good and it rustles.

For the past three years I have purchased every hat, every shirt waist, all my hosiery, belts, veils, underwear and dress goods at the Enterprise Mercantile Co., 116 E. Main street. Please do not try to follow me but leave any message for me with ENTERPRISE MERCANTILE CO. GEO. B. WARREN, Manager.

BATTLE IS IMMINENT

World's Eyes Are at This Time
Fixed on Commodore Dewey's Squadron.

FIGHT IS MOMENTARILY EXPECTED

Between the United States and Spanish Ships in Manila Bay.

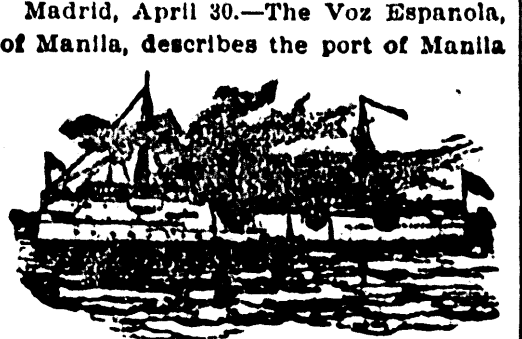

Our Vessels Sighted by the Philippine Islanders—Manila Declared Impregnable by a Spanish Editor—Principal Event of Yesterday Was the Sighting of the Spanish Warships from the Cape Verde Islands and Portugal's Declaration of Neutrality—Two Other Sensations Prove False.

New York, April 30.—2:47 a. m.—The American liner Paris has just been sighted east of Fire Island.

London, April 30.—The Daily Mail hears from Singapore that a naval battle is momentarily expected in Manila bay.

Hong Kong, April 30.—It is reported from Manila that the American squadron has been sighted off Bolinao, north of Manila, but that the weather was too stormy for the fleet to communicate with the insurgents.

Madrid, April 30.—The Voz Espanola, of Manila, describes the port of Manila

UNITED STATES FLAGSHIP BALTIMORE as impregnable. It says that six other principal ports in the Philippines bristle with guns, chiefly of Krupp's make.

London, April 30.—The Daily Mail this morning says: "We have private information that the strength of Manila and Havana is much underrated, and that no bombardment can be attempted by the American commanders with much chance of success. The entrance to Manila bay is mined and ten-inch guns have been mounted."

London, April 30.—The Daily Telegraph's Hong Kong correspondent says the insurgent chief Aguinaldo is preparing to make a descent near Manila. His supporters are plentifully supplied with arms and ammunition from the American squadron.

Washington, April 30.—Yesterday was a day of alarming rumors, running all the way from the blowing up of a big monitor to the detection and punishment of traitors, but fortunately all of them turned out on inquiry to be without foundation. Actual events of importance were few in number. The news of the day of most interest was the departure from Cape Verde of the Spanish fleet, the stay or which at St. Vincent has been a source of anxiety on the part of the officials here, because it seemed to indicate that the sympathy of Portugal for Spain might lead her to wink at a violation of neutrality laws in favor of Spain. Late in the afternoon a cablegram came to the state department from Cape Verde, bearing no signature, announcing that four battleships and three torpedo boats had started north, and that the northern fleet returned shortly, having been in collision.

Little News from the Fleet.

Captain Sampson sent a telegram relative to the firing at the Matanzas forts, but it was disappointingly lacking in detail, but the few words contained in the dispatch went to confirm the official view that the affair was nothing more than a naval reconnaissance. No news came from Admiral Dewey's squadron now on its way to the Philippines to do battle with the Spanish fleet. One officer pointed out that if Admiral Dewey succeeded in defeating the Spanish fleet the Spanish officials who control the cable connecting the island with the rest of the world in all probability will suppress the news or distort the facts into a Spanish victory. Presuming that the admiral is bound directly for Manila, the calculation made at the navy department shows he arrived there about 2 o'clock this morning, Manila time, which is about twelve hours earlier than our own.

Mobilization of the Volunteers.

The pressure continues unabated on the war department for changes in the plans already announced as to mobilization of the volunteer troops, and very much against its will and judgment the department is making some concessions in this matter. A large number of callers are bringing forward candidates for the many plums within the gift of the president and Secretary Alger in the shape of appointments to grades above regimental in the army. General Lee and General Dodge spent a good part of the day in conference with officials, giving color to the reports that they are among those selected for appointment as major generals.

The Landing Place in Cuba.

The announcement that the State of Texas, laden with supplies for the reconcentrados, is destined for Sagua has led to the surmise that it is probably this port instead of Matanzas which has been selected for the landing place of the first attack of the United States troops.

NEUTRALITY OF PORTUGAL.

One Point That Nation Is Persistent in Insisting Upon.

Washington, April 30.—The neutrality of Portugal is announced at Lisbon, Viscount De Santo Thyro, the Portuguese minister, looked over the cable dispatch from Lisbon giving the substance of the neutrality decree passed by the Portuguese parliament, and evidently and covered the entire subject. He had not, however, up to a late hour yesterday received an official notification of the neutrality decree. The viscount says that article 3, which permits belligerents to make a short stop at Portuguese ports, probably will be better understood by saying that belligerents will not be permitted to make long stays at Portuguese ports. Under the usual rules of international law the stay is likely to be confined to a day or two. In this connection the minister drew attention to the privileges permitted when warships of both belligerent nations are in the same port.

In that case, if the warship of one power leave port the warship of the other power cannot leave in pursuit within twenty-four hours, that much time being allowed the ship first departing to go on her way without molestation. Portugal has been very insistent upon this particular rule, and a notable instance of it occurred when the famous Confederate privateer Alabama was at Lisbon during the civil war. A United States ship entered Lisbon harbor while the Alabama was there, and the Alabama immediately withdrew. The United States ship apparently started in pursuit, whereupon the Portuguese batteries fired warning guns and were prepared to make armed resistance to the departure of the second warship before the first one had her full twenty-four hours' start.

It turned out that the United States ship had not intended to chase the Alabama, but was moving her buoys; so trouble was averted. This same rule allowing twenty-four hours' start to the warship of either country will again be observed in the present conflict between the United States and Spain.

The republic of Hayti is expected to maintain strict neutrality as between the United States and Spain, and it is said that reports of exceptional privileges given to the United States warships in Haytian waters are erroneous. The Haytian minister, Legare, had noticed the published quotations from the treaty between the United States and Hayti which, it was asserted, gave exceptional privileges to the United States, in that our warships were given the right to take coal and supplies in Haytian ports. The minister made a careful examination of his official text of the treaty and was unable to locate any such exceptional privileges. Any privilege enjoyed by the ships of one country will be equally open to those of the other country, Legare said.

REVENUE BILL THROUGH THE HOUSE

Parliamentary Manoeuvre Necessary to Pass It with Amendments.

Washington, April 30.—The house yesterday passed the war revenue bill with only the amendments agreed upon by the Republican members of the ways and means committee added. In order to accomplish this a parliamentary manoeuvre was necessary, as the whole time for amendments was exhausted by the minority in trying to amend the bond feature of the bill. Dingley offered as a substitute an entirely new bill, containing these amendments, after the bill had been reported to the house. Many amendments were offered to the bond feature of the bill, ranging from a proposition for the substitution of an income tax provision to an authorization for an issue of $150,000,000 in greenbacks. But all were voted down.

At the last minute the Democrats decided to offer the motion to recommit with instructions to report back the income tax proposition as an amendment to the bill, instead of as a substitute for the bond provision. This was due to the fact that a number of Democrats had declined to vote to strike out the bond provision. The motion was defeated—134 to 173. Four Republicans voted with the Democrats and Populists on this vote.

But on the final passage of the bill the Democrats and Populists, with six exceptions, voted solidly against the bill. The Democrats who voted for the bill were Cummings, McClellan and Griggs of New York; Fitzgerald of Massachusetts; McAleer of Pennsylvania; and Wheeler of Alabama. Two Republicans, Linney of North Carolina and Thorpe of Virginia, voted with the opposition. Quite a number of Democrats declined to vote.

Washington, April 30.—The senate yesterday after a brief statement by Hale, adopted the conference report on the naval appropriation bill. It then passed a few bills to which there was no objection and adjourned until Monday.

TWO SENSATIONS COLLAPSED.

No Bombardment of Cardenas and No Traitor on the Puritan.

Key West, Fla., April 30.—Captain R. F. Harrington, commander of the United States monitor Puritan, and the commanding officer of the Cardenas fleet, who has just come from there, specifically and emphatically denies the story of the alleged bombardment of that port by the monitor Terror and gunboat Machias. He says there are no Spanish batteries there and that the entire story is untrue.

There is absolutely no foundation for the sensational reports telegraphed from here to the effect that a case of treason has been discovered on board the United States monitor Puritan. The rumors arose from the strange actions of a fireman with a Spanish-sounding name, now under restraint on the warship because of his eccentricities. The officers of the Puritan declare there is no thought of trying the man by court-martial, and that all the talk about treason is absurd.

It appears that a few days ago the man in question was seen in one of the monitor's turrets, and the man who saw him reported that he had his hand on the lock of the magazine, whereupon the first man was placed under restraint. The crew of the monitor became excited and declared there was a Spanish spy on board. Through this the extravagant stories were concocted. The officers of the Puritan believe the man is a Cuban in sympathy with the Cuban rebels.

Another Man with Ambition.

Raleigh, N. C., April 30.—The challenge to General Lee and Captain Sigbee by Lieutenant Carranza, of the Spanish navy, has aroused a North Carolinian, William N. Ballard, of Asheville, formerly on the police force there, who has written General Lee requesting that, in case the general does not desire to meet the Spanish officer on the field of honor, he be allowed to take the general's place.

WAS FINE.

The Second Night of Melo-Pictus Was a Rare Treat.

Melo-Pictus was repeated in Conkey's hall last night to a good sized audience and the entertainment was one of the best the ladies of the Universalist church ever gave in the city.

Harriet Purdy-Smith, the dramatic reader, gave several of her select readings which were enthusiastically received by the audience. The solos were fine and the stereopticon lantern worked like a charm.

After the entertainment dancing was enjoyed.

ABOUT THE STATE.

South Haven—Hon. C. J. Monroe says the prospects for fruit were never better than this year.

Three Oaks—At a war meeting
Wednesday night W. C. Hall, Comrade
C. H. Davis, Rev. Salmon and Rev.
Fox made short speeches. During Mr.
Fox's remarks he uncited the United States and Cuban flags which he carried in his hand and the tumult which followed could be heard for blocks.
It was several minutes before he could proceed with his remarks.

Wayland—Some one broke into the office of the Globe at Wayland the other night, evidently by mistake, for who ever heard of anything valuable in a country newspaper office. The Globe, in speaking of the occurrence, says:
"The three cent piece in the cash drawer was not molested."

says that as soon as a tangible proposition can be made that meetings of the Bainbridge and Pipestone granges will be called and that the members will do their full share towards securing the factory.

The engineer will be here to locate the grounds next week and then the work of securing the beet land will be commenced.

AS IT LOOKS TO BRADSTREET.

War Seems to Make No Impression on the Business of the Country.

New York, April 30.—Bradstreet's says: The lack of excitement, nervousness, or interruption to the ordinary orderly conduct of public affairs, and particularly business operations, with which this country has passed from peace to war seems likely to become historical. The temper with which the country has recognized the outbreak of hostilities with a foreign power is not only proof that the dullness and depression of the past six weeks have largely discounted the effect usually witnessed, but furnishes a valuable index to the general point of view taken by the business community as to the outcome of the pending war. Little or no effect upon general trade distribution of an unfavorable character is perceptible in the reports of the past week.

Perhaps the most notable, because most uniform, feature has been the unanimity with which the quotations of leading staples have been marked up.
These advances, too, have not been confined to food products, but include many widely differing articles, alike of home and foreign growth. Wheat, corn, oats and flour have advanced, while pork and other animal products, notably lard, bacon and hams, have also been marked up. The demand for steel plates for vessels is also a feature of interest, and the outlook is for activity in the shipbuilding industry for some time to come. The crop situation generally is of a most gratifying kind, but particularly so in that of wheat and other grains.

Business failures in the United States this week number 245, a gain of twenty-one over last week's total, and comparing with 244 in the corresponding week of 1897, 254 in 1896 and 206 in 1895.

ROBBERS MAKE A BIG HAUL.

Get $20,000 from the Express Car of a Southern Pacific Train.

El Paso, Tex., April 30.—The westbound Southern Pacific passenger train No. 20 was taken in charge by four masked men at Comstock, Tex., at midnight Thursday night and two miles west of the station the express car and engines were detached and run a short distance. The robbers wrecked the through safe and took the entire money contents, amounting to $20,000. No one was injured and none of the passengers was disturbed. The robbers took a trail southward toward the Mexican border.

SUNDAY PAPERS.

THERE WILL BE ANOTHER MOB
HERE TOMORROW.

A "Taxpayer" Objects to Giving Dealers in Sunday Papers Police Protection.

It will be remembered that last Sunday a mob surged into P. W. Hall's drug store when the Sunday papers arrived and destroyed several dollars' worth of property in their hurry to get a paper. It was the purpose of Mr.
Hall to ask the assistance of the police tomorrow to protect him from another attack of the kind. Objecting to such an exercise of police powers a member of the anti-saloon league writes:

EDITOR EVENING NEWS: As a taxpayer I desire to enter my earnest protest against the proposed municipal violation of the Sabbath law in furnishing police protection for the sale of Sunday papers. Of what use are such lectures as those of Judge Grant and Prof. Herron if our city officers are to openly violate the plain letter of the law? Surely if our national government, in time of war, can suspend the movements of the army on Sunday our villages need not create a mob in the street, or smash show cases, in their eagerness to get Sunday newspapers sold in violation of the law. If they do such acts of lawlessness let the officers close the places of business instead of protecting the property of lawbreakers while enraged in their unlawful acts.

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED.

One of Detroit's Well-known Contractors Cured of Bright's Disease.

Detroit, April 26.—Considerable interest is being manifested here over the remarkable cures being made by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. A. J. Groves, the well-known Brick Laying Contractor, who lives at 944 14th St., had Bright's Disease for three years. It first began by a backache, which, although very severe, did not cause much alarm, but when it developed further,
Mr. Groves did everything possible.
He tried many so-called cures, but still the disease kept growing worse, nothing that he could get seemed to do him any good. Some person told him about Dodd's Kidney Pills and he began using them. Three boxes were all that was required to effect a complete cure, and now Mr. Groves is as well as he ever was in his life, but never tired praising Dodd's Kidney Pills, the remedy that saved his life, and the only remedy on earth that has ever cured Bright's Disease.

THE price of print paper like the price of flour is going out of sight. If the present rise long continues the reign of the one cent paper will soon be at an end, as the blank paper will cost more than that received for the finished product. As a business proposition a newspaper cannot be sold for less than the cost of the paper used in the printing. The Rochester papers this week raised their price to 2 cents, and the Buffalo papers will raise their price next week. The Chicago papers are expected to take the same step in the near future.

Clever Advertising.

At a certain large public library there is a rule, which ought not to be necessary, that men and boys must remove their hats on entering. One Saturday afternoon, when the room devoted to the circulating department was crowded, a man of middle age came in and took his place in line. He had a book or two under his arm, as if for the purpose of making an exchange, but he did not remove his hat. On the contrary, he had it jammed down well on his head, and there was a determined expression on his face that seemed to betoken a firm purpose not to take it off.

An attendant stepped up to him and quietly asked him to remove his headgear.

"No, sir," he responded in a loud voice. "You have no right to make a man take his hat off. This is a free country."

"Certainly it is," rejoined the attendant, "but you can't get books at this library if you don't observe its rules."

"I'd like to know why not."

"Because it's the rule. That is sufficient."

"You insist on my taking off this hat?" asked the man in a still louder voice.

"Yes, sir. I do."

By this time the attention of everybody in the room had been drawn to the obstinate visitor.

"Well," he vociferated, "I'll take it off if you insist, but I want you to understand I do it under protest."

He removed the offending hat, disclosing a head as bald as a billiard ball, with this inscription painted upon it in black letters that could be read 20 feet away, "Use Smithy's shaving soap."

And he was the observed of all observers for the next half hour.—Youth's

On Collegiate Physical Training.

It seems idle to expect that any systematic physical training worthy of the name will be taken up by the mass of students on the voluntary system. Diffidence, inadvertence, love of ease, distraction in many directions, excessive and morbid devotion to study in some, mere boyish laziness, ignorance of how to begin and natural sluggishness and vis inertia in others will prevent it unless the work is laid out and required.
 It ought of course to be a part of their education, not an accident of their recreation or a passing incident of their feverish and overwrought thirst for glory. There is no greater boon for boys than to have their work laid out for them, and the word "required" has no terrors at all for them, but quite the contrary, if the work itself is obviously beneficial. They welcome it. Being a fundamental and nearly universal need, physical training should not be the subject of election, but should be required of all except invalids and cripples, with election only as to the kind and form of exercise in the large field from which choice can be made.

The builder of a ten story modern building may have the largest freedom of choice as to architectural style, matterial, ornament and internal arrangements above the ground, but he can have no alternative as to his foundations, and the builders of our growing youth or the youth themselves should certainly have none in the same particular.—Harvard Graduates' Magazine.

"Who Goes Home?"

There is nothing more amusing perhaps in all the quaint and curious customs of the house of commons than the strange ceremony which marks the termination of its every sitting. The moment the house is adjourned stentorian voiced messengers and policemen cry out in the lobbies and corridors, "Who goes home?" These mysterious words have sounded every night for centuries through the palace of Westminster.
 The custom dates from a time when it was necessary for members to go home in parties accompanied by linksmen for common protection against the footpads who infested the streets of London. But though that danger has long since passed away the question, "Who goes home?" is still asked night after night during the session of parliament. No reply is given, and none is expected.—

 the orders of St. Benedict, of preachers, of the Friars Minor and also of the archfraternities of the Via Crucis, of Jesus and Mary and of the Stigmata of St. Francis."

Not His Department.

"I should think you would find this a very trying position," remarked the horrified visitor at the stockyards, gazing with a kind of hideous fascination at the gory artist whose business it was to silence the squealing porkers as they "trolleyed" past him, heads downward.
 "Trying?" answered the pig sticker.
 "Great Scott, no! The trying positions are all in the renderin' houses."

And he silenced another pig.—Chica-

GUARDS BEGIN WORK.

Drills All Morning and Marches in the Afternoon at Camp Tanner.

GETTING THE BOYS IN "FIT" SHAPE

For the "Marching Through Cuba" That Will Come into the Programme Some Day Soon—Minnesota Militia Rallies to the Colors on the Anniversary of the Rally in 1861—Jowa Regiments That Are to Go Selected—Examining Surgeons Appointed.

Chattanooga, April 30.—Yesterday was the liveliest day seen on Chickamauga field since it was the scene of the great battle thirty odd years ago. Troops were packing up and embarking for Tampa, Fla., all day and there was every evidence of a concentration of troops at Tampa for the invasion of Cuba.

Springfield, Ills., April 30.—The easy life that the soldiers at Camp Tanner have been enjoying since their arrival here ended yesterday. The reason for this abrupt ending will be found in a general order that all drills will take place in the morning of each day. The amount of time given to squad and company drills will be at least two hours. At 1 p. m. of each day the troops will be taken out of camp and practiced in marching by separate regiments. A portion of the march will be in the cadenced step, and the entire conduct of the march will be strictly in accordance with the drill regulations. The first march will be five miles at least, in light marching order. The amount of work will be increased progressively until twelve miles in an afternoon can be covered at an average rate of three miles an hour with full kit.

Barkley for a Brigade Command. The regimental surgeons, with two assistants with each, began the work of physical examinations Thursday. This will facilitate things for the arrival of the medical examiners from Washington, as every man has to be thoroughly examined before being accepted by the government. General James H. Barkley, who has been the commanding officer of the Second brigade for nearly nine years, and now post commander at Camp Tanner, is being backed strongly for appointment by the president as brigadier general. The officers appointed by General Charles Fitz Simons, commanding the First brigade of Chicago, have been confirmed by Governor Tanner and commissioned.

RAILRY TO THE COLORS.

Minnesota Men Celebrate an Anniversary Thirty-Seven Years Old.

St. Paul, April 30.—On the 29th of April, 1861, the volunteers under the first call of President Lincoln for volunteers assembled in this city to be mustered in, and yesterday, on the thirty-seventh anniversary of that event, as the sons and grandsons of the boys of '61 assembled here under the call of President McKinley, many an old veteran who greeted them recalled the old days and longed to be able to join with the volunteers going to this war for freedom for Cuba.

Indeed, there were veterans of those days in line yesterday, and they marched with as brisk a step as the younger fellows of the three regiments. The quota for all Minnesota was given as three regiments of infantry, and when they arrived in this city yesterday every man in every one of the thirty-six companies was present for duty and many companies had additional members who hoped to be able to go through vacancies caused by the rigid medical examination that is yet to be undergone by the volunteers.

Des Moines, Ia., April 30.—Adjutant General Byers yesterday received consent from Governor Shaw and the officers of the four regiments of the National Guard—who have been stirred up over the proposed reorganization into three—to select the three which will be sent on the first call. He chose on military standing the Second, Third and Fourth. W. G. Dows is colonel of the First which contains companies from the northeast quarter of the state.

Pittsburg, April 30.—The Michigan state naval brigade, 225 strong, under the supervision of Commander Gilbert Wilkes, passed through the city last night at 8 o'clock, en route to the Norfolk navy yard, where they are to man the auxiliary cruiser Yosemite.

Island Lake, Camp Eaton, Mich., April 30.—Michigan troops are stirred up over the report that they are not to retain their own officers if called to the front, many of them saying they will only enlist under their present officers. The sentiment seems general that inasmuch as the officers were efficient enough to lead the men against mobs in Michigan they are efficient enough to perform the same duty against the Spaniards. The state military board will endeavor to lighten matters out at the next meeting.

Surgeons to Examine Volunteers. Washington, April 30.—Secretary A. C. Cummings has estimated the following called out by the president's proclamation as to their physical qualifications for the service: Captain H. P. Birmingham, assistant surgeon, Illinois; Captain William J. Wakeman, assistant surgeon, Indiana; Captain C. J. Newgarden, assistant surgeon, Iowa; Captain Benjamin Munday, assistant surgeon, Michigan; Lieutenant Henry R. Tilton, deputy surgeon general, Wisconsin.

Gen. Brooke's Opinion of Prospects. Chattanooga, Tenn., April 30.—Major General Brooke in his address to the Young Men's Business League here last night, said regarding the coming fighting in Cuba: "Let me venture a prophecy as a result of the war. Many wives will become widows, mothers will lose sons, and sweethearts their lovers before this business is over."

Hunting in the Burning Bushes of Texas.

A Southern Pacific advertising man says: "Saul, after his conversion, hadn't half the respect for burning bushes that I have since my return from a trip to west Texas. That country is the blank-blanked place for natural curiosities that I ever went up against, and my little introduction to the 'fire bush' came near leaving me in a state of nervous prostration."

"I went out one morning from Dr. Merriwether's ranch with my Winchester on my shoulder to shoot a few jack rabbits for practice. I climbed up on a little plateau where the alkali was thicker than paint on a soubrette and had trailed along for a couple of hours without seeing anything when a big yellow bird, like a pheasant, chuckled at me from beneath a bush at the side of the ravine. The creature was so friendly that I thought I could bat him over or perhaps catch him alive. I leaped at him and when he 'side stepped' I fell into the bush. As I scrambled to my feet I was flabbergasted to find that brown shrub burning merrily beside me. I had just time to dodge the flame and in doing so I struck another plant of the same variety. In an instant, with a little swish, it, too, sprang into flame. I turned, horror stricken, to run, and dashed straight into a third shrub, which at once took part in the conflagration. At that I lost my head, and, dropping my gun, I sprang away frantically through the undergrowth, leaving behind me a trail of fire like a comet's tail. I don't know just how far I ran, but at last, exhausted, I fell to the ground and in a few moments the bushes ceased to burn. When sufficiently recovered, I crawled carefully to the trail, giving anything that looked bushy and brown a wide berth."

"And Merriwether only laughed as he told me that the 'fire bush' is a species of cactus which at a certain period of the year will take fire by spontaneous combustion when violently shaken, as by some one running through them."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Indian Irrigating Tanks.

The system of irrigation is mostly that known as the ancient Hindoo system of tanks. The word "tank," in an Indian irrigation sense, means a storage reservoir. A tank has no definite size. Its area of water spread may be two or three acres or it may extend to as many square miles; its depth may be three or four feet or 100 feet or more.

The word "kounta" is used in Hindurabad to signify a very small tank, such as one of two or three acres only. The words "sangor" and "cherroo" are the Hindoostanee and Telugu equivalents, respectively, of the word that has been copied into English as "tank."

Down every valley a stream must flow in the rainy season, its size depending upon the area of the ground that drains into it. A small stream is a feeder, or one of several feeders, to a larger stream, whose drainage area is the total of those of its small stream feeders. The larger stream is, again, but a feeder to one still larger, and so on till the great river is reached that carries the water from the whole accumulated drainage areas to the sea. In each little valley, in each larger valley, in each yet larger valley again, one or more tanks can be constructed, and thus the drainage area supplying a tank may vary from less than one square mile to 100 square miles.—George Palmer in Engineering Magazine.

Advice on Pruning.

If pruning is done properly, no tools will ever be necessary except a sharp pruning knife, but if neglected or too many main limbs are allowed to grow the saw will have to be used in a few years. It is desirable to make a nice, smooth, even cut, and to do this the knife should follow the shoulder that is noticeable at the junction of the limb to another or to the main stem, and the surface of the cut should be no larger than the base of the branch removed. Draw the blade inward a little at the upper side. Avoid leaving a sharp stub from which a new shoot may start. Do not make the cut too close. When the saw must be used on a heavy limb, saw a little on the underside first, so that the weight of the limb as it falls will not split or peel the bark. It is necessary to paint the wound made by pruning with white lead and linseed oil, to which may be added a little lampblack, if desired, to give a darker effect.—Report Colorado Board of Horticulture.

Best Side of a Cemetery.

Probably few people know that there is a choice side to every cemetery. Thus, in some parts of the world, the eastern portion, without regard to its situation, is always deemed the most desirable. This preference arises from the old tradition that our Lord will appear from the east. It is also believed that the dead in the eastern portion will be the first to rise, then those in the southern, western and northern in order.

In England it was once the custom of laying felons and other bad characters on the north side of the church. The custom of laying the dead in a certain direction is responsible for the Welsh designation for the east wind, "The wind of the dead men's feet."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Comedy of Divorce.

Mrs. Lincoln Parke—Delighted to make your acquaintance, Mr. Englewood. It almost seems as if I had met you before.

Mr. Englewood—My memory is better than yours, my dear madam. You were once my wife.

Mrs. L. P.—Are you sure?

Mr. E.—Quite!

Mrs. L. P.—Probably you are right.

I never could remember faces.—New York Herald.

Dr. McDonald uses only the purest medicines from the vegetable kingdom. He pays attention to the cause of the disease and instructs his patients the way to health and happiness. Dr. McDonald can show hundreds of testimonials in the hand writing of grateful patients who have been cured by him when others failed. He is so familiar with the human system that he is able to read all diseases of the mind or body correctly at a glance without asking any questions. Thousands of invalids are being treated daily for diseases that they do not have, while a few drops of medicine directed to the seat of the disease would give speedy relief, and permanent cure in a very short time. Good health is the most precious jewel in our crown of happiness. With it the world is bright; without it, misery claims us for her own. If you are a sufferer you should weigh well these words: A person who neglects his health is guilty of a great wrong to himself and a grave injury to humanity. The name of Dr. McDonald, the well-known specialist in the cure of chronic and lingering diseases, has become a household word in thousands of homes which his skill and wonderful remedies have made happy by restoring dear ones to health after all hopes were lost.
